About the Signature Conference . . .

Featuring unscripted, open dialogue among leading historians about the State of the Union in 1859, this program is approached as an experiment in public history that sets a tone of inclusion and innovation in the country's conversations about the Civil War during the upcoming sesquicentennial. Limiting discussion to what would have been known in 1859, topics include:

"Taking Stock of the Nation in 1859"

Ed Ayers, Christy Coleman, Gary Gallagher, Walter Johnson, Joan Waugh

"The Future of Virginia and the South"

Ed Ayers, Charles Dew, Robert Kenzer, Gregg Kimball, Laurant Lee

"Making Sense of John Brown's Raid"

Ed Ayers, David Blight, David Reynolds, Manisha Sinha, Clarence Walker

"Predictions for the Election of 1860"

Ed Ayers, Jean Baker, Daniel Crofts, Nelson Lankford, Elizabeth Varon
